

Winter Semester 2019/2020
KG I, Walser-Bibliothek 1187
Mondays from 18:00 (c.t.) to 20:00

FrACAS:

Freiburg Ancient Central Asia Seminar

Organised in cooperation with the BaSaR Project – Seminar für Alte Geschichte

11.11.19

Lauren Morris (Freiburg)

More than a crossroad: current research on ancient Central Asia, with remarks on the Begram hoard (Afghanistan)

18.11.19

Marco Ferrario (Freiburg)

My kingdom for a camel. Serving the satrap (or not) in Achaemenid Bactria

02.12.19

Razieh Taasob (Freiburg)

Khalchayan and historical links to the numismatic, archaeological and iconographical evidence in Central Asia: some suggestions for chronology

09.12.19

Milinda Hoo (Freiburg)

Cultural inbetweenness across central Eurasia: Paradoxes of Hellenism and the search for a new approach

13.01.20

Jacopo Bruno (Turin)

Nisa – Mithradatkert. Thirty years of Italian archaeological research in Old Nisa (Turkmenistan)

20.01.20

Gunnar Dumke (Halle)

The answer to all of our questions? The potentials and limitations of die studies of 'Indo-Greek' coins

03.02.20

Elisa Iori (Erfurt)

The dual faces of Swat in Late Antiquity: urban models and religious competition

10.02.20

Gunvor Lindström (Berlin)

Torbulok. In search of the rituals at a Hellenistic sanctuary in ancient Bactria

Contact: Lauren Morris
lauren.morris@geschichte.uni-freiburg.de

BaSaR
Beyond the Silk Road

UNI
FREIBURG